► The urgent problems to solve in Yangon: Flood during the rainy season, traffic, rubbish piles, joblessness, difficult access for foreign investments are the main challenges and these issues will be the target points to find out the solutions, said U Phyo Min Thein, the Chief Minister of Yangon Region Cabinet on 28 March, 2016. He also said he would make the change that Yangon Region will be free of corruption in Yangon. (Extracts from The Voice Weekly Facebook Page)

► "Today is the time when NLD has ruling power all over the country. As our political party, ANP, has won the majority of seats in Rakhine State, if NLD would appoint the chief minister from ANP, it could be possible now. The Constitution does not state that only the winning party members could be the chief ministers," said U Pe Than, a MP of ANP. (Extracts from Arakan State Facebook Page)

► Dr. Zaw Myint Maung, one of the spokespersons of NLD, said that the numbers of ministries and ministers would be reduced for all state and region cabinets. Dr. Zaw Myint Maung is also the chief minister of Mandalay Region Cabinet. (Extracts from the 7 Day News Website)

► "We have to carry out the rule of law very first. If the rule of law develops, corruption will be decreased automatically. Right now, it is not at all possible to abolish the corruption. As for land grabbing issues, there are land laws so that we could carry out in accordance with these laws," said Dr. Khet Aung, the chief minister of Kachin State Cabinet. (Extracts from DVB Burmese Website)
